Eniac & Magist

Group 3:

Gracia Emerentiana [E-DA-55]

Nighat Ahmad [E-DS-55]

Jade Chantal Smukat [E-DA-55]

Eniac's Goal

Business expansion to the Brazilian Market

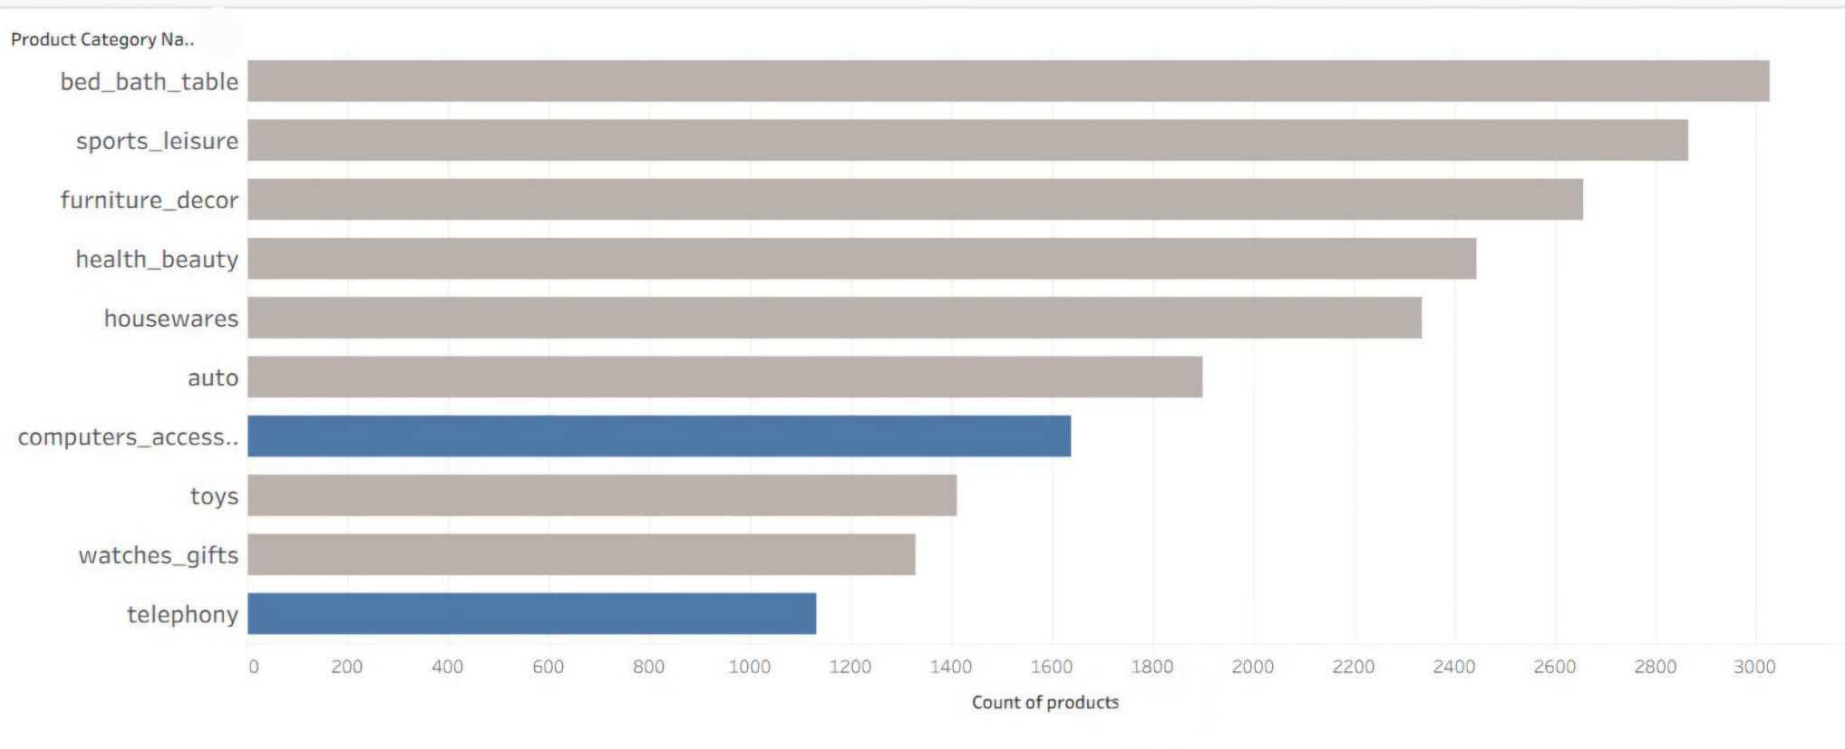

Eniac's Strategy

Partnership with Magist – a Brazilian Software Service Company

Partnership's Concerns

- Is Magist a good partner for these high-end tech products?
 - Are deliveries fast enough?

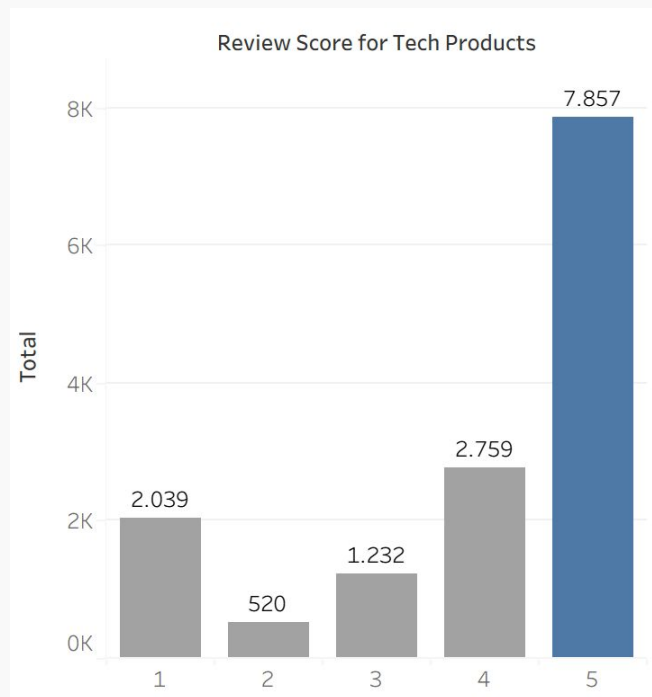

Is Magist a good partner for these high-end tech products?

Only 10,29%

of Magist's revenue comes from tech products

Are deliveries fast enough?

Are deliveries fast enough?

Summary

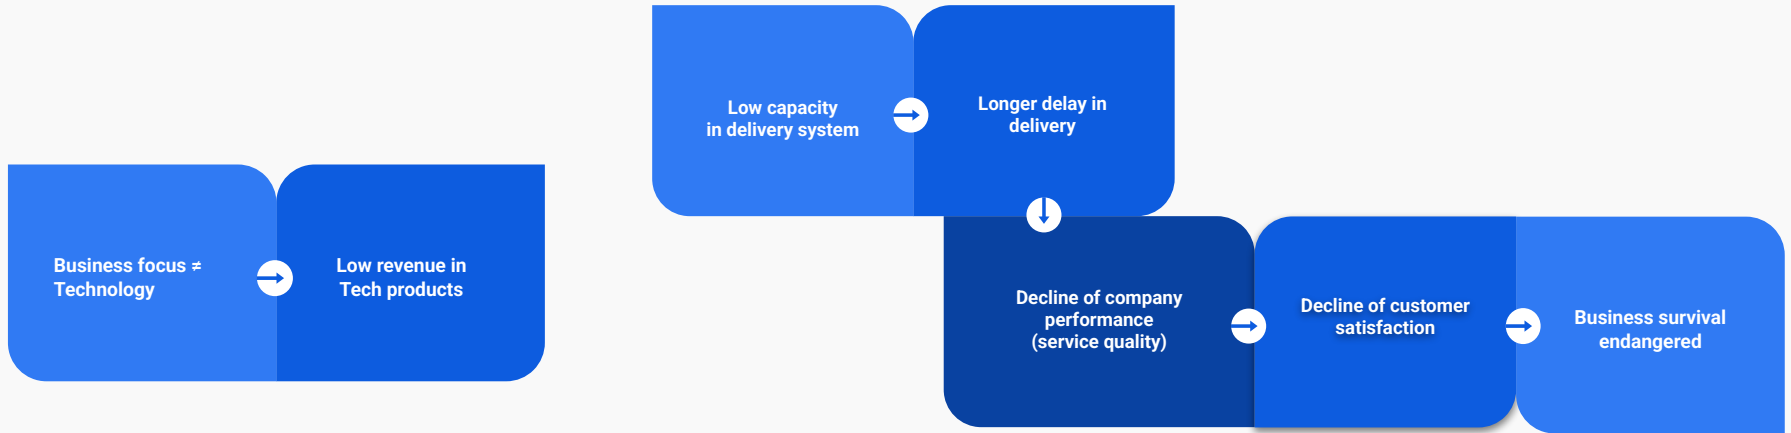

- Magist's revenue from tech products is low, which is only 10,29% of their total revenue.
 - Magist's customers for tech products are mostly satisfied with their performance.
- The deliveries are not fast enough, with delays from a week until 100 days for high total weights and high amount of orders.

Conclusion

Magist

Eniac

Recommendation

An evaluation of Magist's product catalog, customer reviews, and delivery performance provides substantial evidence that a partnership is not advisable at this time and we should seek another alternative method.
